Dr. Thomas E. Bellavance

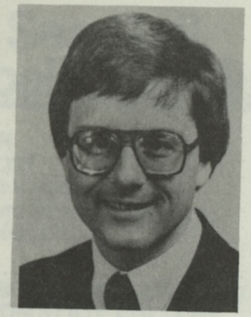
President's Message

With 17 intercollegiate sports here at Salisbury State College, our emphasis on participatory athletics is well documented. Equally important, we are fortunate to have not only a highly competent group of educators to motivate and teach our student-athletes but truly outstanding facilities where they are able to train and compete. As such, that segment of the college community possessing outstanding athletic skills and a personal dedication to success on the playing field is able to achieve significant individual and team oriented goals.

While the recognition these talented young men and women receive is justly deserved, the opportunity for all to participate is an overriding interest at Salisbury State, whether it be in intercollegiate athletics or intramural activities.

Additionally, the opportunity for the student body to go out on Saturday afternoons to root for some of the most talented of our student-athletes is part of the thread that weaves throughout the unique fabric of a college community.

Athletic Director



Dr. Louis M. Marciani (Charleston, '66) was named chairman of physical education and director of athletics by Salisbury State College President Dr. Thomas E. Bellavance in August.

Marciani's dual role came as a result of the realignment of the College's academic system into five schools of learning. Dr. K. Nelson Butler, former chairman of physical education, was elevated to Dean of the School of Professional Studies, which includes the physical education department. Deane Deshon became associate athletic director in the move while remaining the College's baseball coach.

Before moving to Salisbury State, Dr. Marciani served as chairman of the department of Intramural-Recreation sports at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

Among his many achievements spread over a 10-year period at Southern Mississippi was his conception and development of Lake Sehoy, a 200-acre outdoor recreation facility which includes areas for swimming, boating, fishing and camping as well as an arts and crafts center and and equestrian center.

Known throughout the world for his accomplishments in the areas of intramural and club sports administration, Marciani headed efforts at USM which raised overall participation at the school of over 12,000 by nearly 30 percent.

He has written several books on the topic and has made presentations at over 20 seminars and workshops concerning intramural-recreation sports management. He has also been a contributing writer to several magazines dealing with the topic.

Marciani is an honored member of several professional organizations dealing in intramural-recreation sports, having served a four-year term as president of the National Intramural-Recreational Sports Association, a group with over 2,500 members nationwide.

Born January 14, 1945 in Bronx, New York, Marciani received his B.S. from the University of Charleston, W.Va. in 1966. A year later he graduated with an M.S. from the University of Bridgeport, Connecticut, at which time he became the soccer and wrestling coach as well as director of Intramural sports at Gannon College in Erie, Pa.

From 1970 to 1974, Marciani called Buffalo, New York his home, becoming the coordinator of intramural-recreation sports at New York State University College at Buffalo. During that time, his teams ranked nationally in the top 10 on two seperate occasions, making the NCAA playoffs in 1970.

In 1976, Marciani was requested by the State Department to provide sports clinics for the professional staff of the Department of the Army in West Germany. He has been involved with professional sports, having served as director of recreational services for the Buffalo Braves of the National Basketball Association. He also worked in group sales promotion with the club.

Head Coach

Mike McGlinchey (Delaware '67) has been the head coach of the Sea Gulls for two years, though he has been associated with the Salisbury State College football program since its inception in 1972, serving as the team's defensive coordinator.

Taking the reigns in 1982 following the program's only losing season (2-7), McGlinchey has led the Sea Gulls to a 15-5-1 record over those two years and a semifinal berth in the NCAA Division III championships last year. His 1983 squad was the first SSC team to go undefeated in the regular season, suffering only a tie to Kean College before losing to Union College in the championship semifinals.

McGlinchey is a member of the National Football Coaches Association and will serve on its national Division III All-America selection committee this year.

During his ten-year period as defensive coordinator for the Sea Gulls, McGlinchey also served as head wrestling coach, creating that program in 1972. His ten-year record of 113-32-2 was one of the best in Division III during that period which saw the Sea Gulls rise to third in the nation in both 1978 and 1979.

In all, McGlinchey coached six national champions and 16 All-America wrestlers with five national championship tournament teams. He was nominated for Division III Coach of the Year honors in both 1979 and 1980.

Born December 28, 1944 in Richland, Washington, McGlinchey moved with his family to Delaware and attended Newark High School. He competed in football, wrestling and baseball at Newark, and was the state runner-up in his wrestling weight class his senior year.

At the University of Delaware, McGlinchey continued to compete in all three sports, one of the last three-sport athletes in Blue Hen history. As a senior, he was named both the outstanding wrestler and outstanding senior athlete at Delaware.

The next two years saw McGlinchey stationed with the U.S. Army at Baumholder, Germany. He still had the urge to participate in sports and wrestled for his company there. In 1969, he won the Army's European Wrestling Championship.

McGlinchey returned to the United States and worked for one year at Elkton Senior High School as physical education instructor and assistant coach of both the football and baseball teams while starting a wrestling program.

A frequent speaker at area meetings and banquets, McGlinchey has worked at various football and wrestling camps while consulting with other college coaches in helping their programs.

Campus Backbone . . . Student Organizations

Student organizations at SSC are characterized by the diversity of activities in which they are involved. A total of sixty student groups in categories ranging from communications to social service organizations.

Two organizations, the Student Senate and the Appropriations Board, are vital elements in the governance process on behalf of students. The Appropriations Board finances the major interest groups of Salisbury students via the administration of approximately $120,000.00 in student activity fees. The Student Senate, on the other hand, plays a critical role in the expression of student viewpoints via representation on numerous campus-wide policy committees and through participation in the College Forum.

Other groups which receive major activity fee funding are an essential part of the lives of SSC students, as well as members of the greater Salisbury community. The SSC Dance Company presents one dance concert each semester for the entertainment of not only the campus, but for the surrounding area as well. Each February, the Black Student Union hosts Black Awareness Week; a series of programs and special events designed to promote the culture and achievements of Black Americans who have contributed to the college, community and country. The Flyer, the campus bi-weekly newsmagazine, is dedicated to informing the campus of recent happenings and news that affects all college students.

Greek letter organizations in particular have been a valuable element in fund-raising events for a variety of regional and national charities. In a similar light, Circle K, a national service organization, has an established chapter on our campus as well.

Congratulates all sports teams on your fine seasons last year, and wishes you much success on their fourth coming season.

Shaping Up Life . . . Intramural-Recreation

Salisbury State's Intramural Recreation program is designed to give the entire College community the opportunity to participate in a variety of formal and informal sporting activities. From Flag Football to Fencing, Badminton to Bowling, the IM Rec program includes team sports, as well as individual and dual sports. The program also includes outing and non-competitive activities.

In addition to the obvious benefit of physical fitness, the IM Rec program is meant to help improve the skills of its participants while giving everyone the opportunity to meet people and make new friends. It is also hoped that the program will help participants obtain some self-satisfaction and enjoyment, lifelong leisure time skills as well as social and ethical qualities, such as cooperation, trust and regard for others. It is felt that these objectives are consistent with the educational mission of the College.

A high level of skill is not needed to participate in the IM Rec program, just an open mind and the desire to be the best you can be. All eligible students, faculty and staff members are encouraged to participate in one activity or another throughout the school year.

SSC . . . A History

Salisbury State College is located on U.S. Route 13 at the southern edge of Salisbury, which has a metropolitan population of 50,000 and lies 32 miles west of Ocean City, Md., 115 miles southeast of Baltimore and Washington, 125 miles south of Philadelphia and 125 miles north of Norfolk, Va.

In 1922, the State Legislature established a commission to determine a location for a two-year college on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. A site at Salisbury was selected and the institution opened in September 1925.

Originally authorized as a College offering a two-year program, the course of study was increased to three years in 1931 and in 1934 to four years. Following this, and by action of the legislature of 1935, the College was authorized to grant the Bachelor of Science degree.

Expansion of the academic program occurred in 1947 and again in 1960, at which point four-year programs in both the arts and sciences with majors in a number of academic fields had been developed which provided students with a choice of either a Bachelor of Arts degree or a Bachelor of Science degree. In 1962, the State Board of Trustees approved a graduate program leading to the Master of Education degree. This was followed in 1971 with approval for a Master of Arts in History, in 1974 a Master of Arts in English, in 1975 a Master of Arts in Psychology, and in 1982 a Master of Business Administration degree program and a Master of Science program in Nursing.

Today, Salisbury State College stands as a nationally accredited four-year, multi-purpose, liberal arts college offering 31 distinct undergraduate and graduate degree programs in a friendly atmosphere.

In the beginning . . .

Alumni Association . . . A Link to The Past

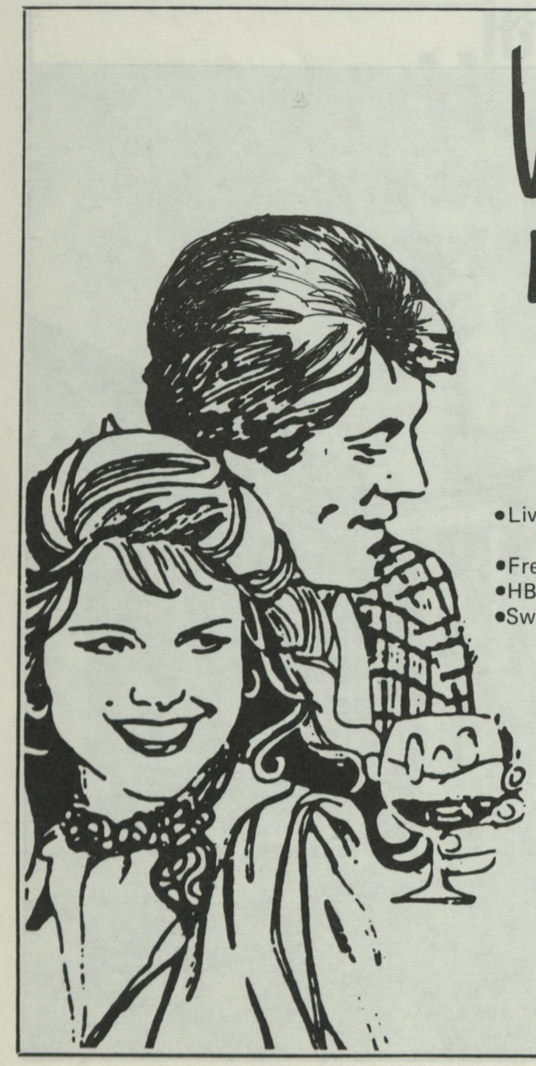
No matter how young or old, each fall inevitably brings memories of going "back to school". It is a ritual as basic and routine as Fourth of July sparklers or carving the Thanksgiving turkey. For some this routine is a never ending process as they continue to return each year to their alma mater, or some other school for a variety of reasons ranging from continuing their education to enjoying intercollegiate sports. And "back to school" is something that has happened to each person who has graduated from Salisbury State College.

Now there are several special reasons for thinking about coming back to SSC each year. Recently Salisbury State College has reaffirmed its commitment to its Alumni through the establishment of a full time Alumni Office. Through this office we are striving to provide better services and more exciting programs for Salisbury grads.

These services include an expanded career contact program, better issues of the Salisbury Scene, travel programs, specialized class reunions and more exciting Homecomings. These are all programs which form part of a plan for a larger, stronger, and more effective Alumni Association for Salisbury State. But these projects can exist only with the support of SSC's alumni.

Your involvement throughout the year is necessary to make SSC's Alumni Association a strong and vital force in the life of the College. Your participation is needed in order to make Homecoming '84 the most exciting ever.

We hope that you will find time on October 27th or anytime during the year to come "back to school" in the fall of 1984.



We make it better

McGlinchey On . . . Coaching

Optimism is a concept that can be a by-product of a sound educationally based athletic program. Nowhere in life is the excitement of the "big dream" more apparent than in the area of athletics. The first step that every player must attain is to expect the best from himself. This initial optimism is an essential cog in the wheel of success, and can be learned.

Two other concepts that can relate to athletics are creating the ability of self motivation and goal setting. It has been stated on many occasions that certain coaches are great motivators. This statement has many fallacies if we examine what motivation really is. True motivation must come from inside each person. The reasons that each athlete competes and strives for excellence must be internalized.

The value of persistence is another attribute that can be learned by participation in athletics. Persistence is the real measure of success.

Finally, in order for a person to be a winner in life, it is necessary for him to have the qualities of self-esteem and positive self-image. The opportunities for athletics to help develop these qualities are abundantly evident in a sound athletic program. A person must feel good about himself and should have a deep down feeling of his own worth. These qualities maximize one's potential. The athlete, involved in a sound program, will learn the meaning of the words "commitment," "dedication," and "paying the price." Winning and losing is not of primary importance in my philosophy. If an athlete can work hard to improve and make himself the best he can be by these commitments, then winning will probably, but not necessarily, be a result of his behavior.
